

FAB GEMS World Credit Card FAQs

Annual Membership Fee

✓ What is the Annual Membership Fee (AMF) applicable on FAB GEMS World Credit Card?

AMF is (exclusive of VAT): AED 399

✓ Since when is AMF applicable on the card?

As communicated earlier via SMS, the AMF will be applicable on the anniversary of your credit card commencing 21st December 2023. If on your card anniversary you have not spent AED24,000 during the year on non-educational spends, then you will be levied the AMF.

✓ Is AMF applicable on primary credit card?

Yes, the AMF is applicable on primary credit card.

✓ What is the AMF on the supplementary card?

There is no AMF applicable on the supplementary credit card. The supplementary credit card is free for life.

✓ When will the AMF be charged on the card?

Existing To Bank

For existing customers, the AMF will be assessed only from their anniversary date falling on or after the AMF effective date of 21st December 2023.

For example, if an existing customer's anniversary is due on 1st July 2024, the AMF for this customer will be assessed only from the 1st July 2024 based on spends during the year.

New To Bank

For new to bank customers onboarded on or after 21st December 2023, the card is free for the first year. AMF will be assessed only after their first anniversary onwards.

For example, if a customer is onboarded on 1st April 2024, there won't be any AMF charged after onboarding for the first year. The AMF will be chargeable only on anniversary, if spends of AED24,000 are not made during the year (i.e. between 1st April 2024 to 30th March 2025) on non-educational spends.

✓ What is the spend based criterion to qualify reversal of AMF?

Customers who achieve non-education spend of AED 24 K in a year will be eligible for reversal of AMF. For such customers, there won't be any AMF charged.

Existing To Bank

In an example given above for existing customer, customer has to achieve non-education spend of AED 24 K between 1st July 2024 to 30th June 2025, failing which AMF will be charged on the account.

New To Bank

In above mentioned example of new to bank customer, if customer doesn't achieve non-Education spend between 1st April 2024 to 30th March 2025, the AMF will be chargeable on anniversary. However, if the spend threshold is achieved, AMF will not be charged.
